LUNCHTIME CONCERTS A REAL HIT

The Hub is a lunch time concert series held fortnightly where students have the opportunity to be showcased.

This week we had another exciting array of performances from our students, with five different acts on show. To kick it off, we had Year 12 student Jacob Pallone surprise us all with his secret vocal talent, singing the famous pop song Let It Go by Passenger.

Other senior performers were: Lachlan Kerr (double bass), Liam Penklis (tenor saxophone), Samuel Aung (cajon), Daniel Matic (acoustic guitar), Miriam Leslie (ukulele) and Emily Cook (vocals). Evelyn Kilic from Year 8 also performed Harry Styles' Sign of the Times on solo piano, and this was a follow up from the last HUB, where the entire audience were singing the chorus along to her piano melody – another memorable moment for the HUB. Thanks again to all those student musicians who performed.
