

LOURDES IS A TRIPLE THREAT

Our very own Lourdes Abdishou was the winner of the Australasian Dance Association NSW Award.

The NSW division Grade 1 jazz win this year makes her the state champion. She also placed third for Grade 1 tap.

Lourdes has entered a range of competitions for dance this year and has placed in all of them but the latest is the one that really counts.

The youngster has been dancing at Nadia's Performance Studio at Wetherill Park since she was four. She does jazz, tap, ballet, musical theatre, acrobatics, hip hop and glee. She also does drama and is in a talent agency.

To add to her experience, Lourdes has done a Wonder White bread commercial which is currently on television. This is in addition to a couple of Woolworths commercials where she worked alongside chef Jamie Oliver. These supermarket ads are currently on television.

She's also just landed a role in feature movie Slam. Filming begins on November 6 until the beginning of next year. She will play the role of a little girl called Alia.

It's been a busy year!
