

POETS AND THEY DIDN'T KNOW IT

Poet Harry Laing teaches Year 5 a thing or two about poetry.

Year 5 had the privilege of being entertained and taught by poet Harry Laing.

It was encouraging to see students, who love to write as well as students who struggle to write, 'have a go' producing amazing poems at the event on 24 November 24.

Mr Laing has a passion for poetry, comic performance and teaching. He's published two books -

Thirst and Backbone and his first book as a children's author came out in 2015, Shoctopus-poems.
