Term 2 Competition Sneak Peak

We all have a favourite book, a book that we can't put down, that stays with us forever, and that we want to read over and over again!

However what would be your teacher's favourite book? Could you guess it? Could you figure it out?

Stay tuned for more information next term!

What's new on the shelf?

A fantastic new book on Australia's two greatest generals has arrived in the IRC!

Monash & Chauvel - Roland Perry

"John Monash commanded the Australian forces on the Western Front at the most critical time of the war, 1918. With his German Jewish heritage, Monash was an outsider who had risen to his position through his ground-breaking military achievements. Almost uniquely among Allied generals on the Western Front, he learned the lessons of past failures and devised the tactics that allowed his Australian troops to break through the stalemate of trench warfare as well as masterminding crucial battles.

In the war against the Ottoman Empire in the Middle East, Harry Chauvel led the 34 000 strong Desert Mounted Column. Chauvel was an Empire man, who considered himself as British first, Australian second. His attitude changed in the course of the war, when he realised he would have to ignore the directives of his British superiors and take the initiative in planning battle tactics himself if he was to defeat the Turks and drive them out of the Middle East after 400 years of brutal rule over the Arab tribes.

By the end of the war Monash and Chauvel had brought a distinctly Australian sensibility to their areas of operation, involving flexibility, innovation and a deep respect for the troops they led, which was in turn reciprocated by their men. Their impact on the war was immense and, in this fascinating and compelling account, bestselling author Roland Perry does full justice to their extraordinary careers and the soldiers under their command."

Monash & Chauvel written by esteemed Australian historian Roland Perry is a wonderful book that makes the compelling case that John Monash and Harry Chauvel can be and should be considered the two greatest generals of the First World War. Providing detailed information not only on the two generals, Perry also provides insight into the lives and thoughts of the Australian soldiers who served under their commands.

With Anzac Day approaching, Monash & Chauvel is highly recommended to all readers who would like to gain a deeper and richer understanding of the great contribution these two Australian Generals and their men made to the winning of the First World War. It is a great resource filled with fantastic maps and black and white photographs, and would very useful to all history students.

This is just one of many great Anzac resources to be found in the IRC. Please speak to Library staff for other great titles.

Please see the new book stand in the IRC for more great new resources!

Overdue books

Many students still have outstanding books from 2017. Students need to return these resources to the IRC as soon as possible.

Overdue notices will be sent out this week. If any students require a printed list of their loans please speak to Mrs Comiskey or Mr Smith.

Students who do not return their books will be invoiced for a replacement copy.
