SOUTH WEST FESTIVAL - SATURDAY 25 AUGUST 2018

We are looking forward to a great day of community fun!

Commences at 10am - be sure to come along!

Planning is in full swing for the South West Festival. We are expecting numbers in excess of 5,000 visitors which is shaping up to be a great day for the College and local community and beyond. The countdown is on!

There will be a variety of food trucks, thrill rides, children's amusements and activities, petting farm, interactive reptile exhibit, live musical performances, Emergency Services displays, market stalls and of course, the renowned Motor Show, which attracts exhibitors from all over the State.

There are many opportunities for assistance on the day so be sure to watch out for emails and notes coming home outlining where you can help.
