Guess what! The South West Festival is back at it for 2018!

On Saturday 25 August from 10am-3pm there will be plenty of fun rides, food, showbags and you will even get the chance to meet Batman with his very own Batmobile! All of this and much more on the Junior Oval of Thomas Hassall Anglican College at 125 Kingsford Smith Ave, Middleton Grange so come on down and enjoy a whole day of fun with stuff for the whole family.

So if you like the thrill of rides and entertainment with food and showbags that is all going to be there or if you like arts & crafts or animals come down to the Reptile Interactive Display, petting zoo or you could even get a pony ride! I know you Mums out there love all your gift baskets and little pop-up stores so there is going to be that just as well. But don't worry all you dads and manly men there is going to be something that you like just as much. A motor show! There are going to be muscle cars, sports cars, motorbikes, classic cars and if you think your car is good enough you can enter it in yourself for the chance to win and be awarded trophies at the end of the day for many categories chosen by the people. There is even going to be an auction on some pretty cool and even priceless items. All of this will a FREE ENTRY!

So like I said there is something for the whole family at the South West Festival so again come on down on Saturday 25th August from 10am - 3pm for a day of fun until it's done!
