

YEAR 1 HAS THEIR HEADS IN THE CLOUDS

This term Year One is learning about observable changes in the sky.

We are currently monitoring the daily weather and learning about three different types of clouds. Cirrus clouds are high, thin and wispy. Cumulus clouds are thick and fluffy and Stratus clouds are like a blanket covering the sky. I wonder what clouds are in the sky today?

Images taken by Cierra 1A and Noah 1A

Miss Ashleigh Hackfath

Year 1 Team Leader
