What's new on the shelf?

'When fairy tales are more than just stories...'

'The School for Good and Evil' - Soman Chainani

"Every four years, two girls are kidnapped from the village of Gavalton. Legend has it these lost children are sent to the School for Good and Evil, the fabled institution where they become fairytale heroes or villains.

With her glass slippers and devotion to good deeds, Sophie knows she'll join the ranks of past students like Cinderella, Rapunzel, and Snow White at the School for Good. Meanwhile, Agatha, with her shapeless black dresses and wicked black cat, seems a natural fit for the villains in the School for Evil.

But the two girls soon find their fortunes reversed - Sophie's dumped in the School for Evil to take Uglification, Death Curses and Henchmen Training, while Agatha finds herself in the School for Good, thrust among handsome princes and fair maidens for classes in Princess Etiquette and Animal Communication.

But what if the mistake is actually the first clue to discovering who Sophie and Agatha really are?"

'The School for Good and Evil' by author Soman Chainani is a magically enchanting book in which fairy tales quite literally come to life. This first novel in a brand new series tells the story of two friends Sophie and Agatha who find themselves in a strange but wonderful school that trains and helps educate fairy tale characters. The author has created a fascinating and unique fantasy world filled with lots of traditional and not so traditional fairy tale characters. This is a fun novel that will have readers enthralled from the very first page. The novel tells a moving and emotional story of friendship, of how to distinguish the real difference between good and evil, and how our choices do matter and do influence our lives. Beautifully written, sometimes hilarious, sometimes suspenseful, sometimes heart wrenching and shocking, 'The School for Good and evil' is a wonderful series starter that will be hit with any readers who enjoyed the Harry Potter books. Suitable for Years 7 to 9.
