

WEATHER PRESENTATION

Claire in Year 1 doing a weather presentation for NEWS

Year One have been studying the weather and were asked to share a weather presentation to their class. We think that the online learning platform actually enhanced their work and many students put in a fantastic effort! Claire Eldridge became a weather presenter and entertained us with her creativity.