

ALL WRAPPED UP

To finish off their studies of Ancient History, Year 12 Ancient history revised one of those most important skills from Ancient Egypt - the art of mummy-making.

It was a fun way to finish their final class together after the hard work they have put in over the last two years.
