

THE WAY

FARM VISIT

We had some very special visitors at College this week and our Kindergarten students loved it!

To enhance their learning in Science, where they are investigating different animals and the products they produce, students met a range of farm animals. They heard educational talks and also had the opportunity to feed them.
