Chaos in the Library's space time continuum! – Term 1 Competition

Something terrible has happened! The Senior Library's omega energy source has been split into five separate segments. These segments have hidden themselves inside five different books in the Library. Not sure what to do, the Librarians called on the only being in the universe able to help...a 900-year-old Time Lord!

The Doctor has come up with a solution but she needs help from the students of Thomas Hassall. Only by borrowing one of these five unknown books will the segments of omega energy be released. However, time is not on the side of the Senior Library. If any of the segments haven't been released by the end of Term 1, the Senior Library will transform back into its original particle state and vanish forever!

Help the Doctor! Help save the Senior Library! Mrs Comiskey and Mr Smith are relying on you!

Great prizes to be won for each student who borrows one of the five hidden books. For more information please speak to Mr Smith.

Library loans of 2020

Students in Years 8 to 11 who still have library books from 2020 need to return them to the IRC as soon as possible. Students who do not return their books will receive an invoice for a replacement copy. Please speak to Mrs Comiskey or Mr Smith if you require a printed list of your loans.

What's new on the shelf?

'Are you brave enough to read one of the scariest Dr Who stories ever written?'

Fear of the Dark – Trevor Baxendale

"In the year 2382 archaeologists land on Akoshemon's only moon, searching for evidence of the planet's infamous past. But when the Doctor, Tegan and Nyssa are drawn into the lunar caverns they find more than a team of academics -- and help uncover much more than ancient history. Something is lying in wait, deep inside the labyrinth of caves: something that remembers the spiral of war, pestilence and deprivation that ruined Akoshemon. Something that rejoiced in every kind of horror and destruction. An age-old terror is about to be reborn. But what is the hideous secret of the Bloodhunter? And why does Nyssa feel that her thoughts are no longer her own?"

Forced to confront his own worst fears, even the Doctor will be pushed to breaking point -- and beyond."

'Fear of the Dark' written by Trevor Baxendale is a wonderfully written claustrophobic and atmospheric SCI-FI/Horror story that will have readers hooked. Featuring the Fifth Doctor (Peter Davison) and his companions, the author has done a terrific job bringing these television characters to life on the page, each sounding and acting like they would have if this had been a television episode. Dark, spooky and thrilling, this novel features a couple of terrifying monsters that are both unique and terrifying in equal measure. Readers who enjoy darker more intense stories are bound to love this book, the story's high quality and faithfulness to the source material will also definitely please Doctor Who fans. This novel would be most suitable for students in Year 8 and above.

Librarians final health warning: Make sure you don't read this in the dark!
