

THE WAY

EXTREME HISTORY

Our students from Year 10 Extreme History visited the Justice & Police Museum as part of their studies into 'Crime and Punishment'.

Students examined the case of the 'Pyjama Girl Mystery' and participated in a recreation of the trial of Antonio Agostini.

The class also undertook a tour of The Rocks district, learning about the criminal past of the area and its place in Sydney's history.

Mr Robert Smith

HSIE Coordinator - History and Legal Studies
