

THE WAY

FROM THE CHAPLAIN

God is in control

Over the last couple of months, life has felt out of control. COVID laws restricted my actions and crushed my routines. Commercial and social media have unsettled my heart with their dramatics making a tough situation seem worse. On top of that, people do what they want and this results in extending lockdown periods!! In a strange way, I thank God for all this.

I thank God because I am reminded I am not in control. Therefore the next question to ask is, if I am not in control then who is? You know the answer the chaplain is going to give. God is in control.

Everything on earth has its own time and its own season... God makes everything happen at the right time. Yet none of us can ever fully understand all he has done, and he puts questions in our minds about the past and the future. Ecclesiastes 3:1,11

On realising that a good God has both good and evil orchestrated for his good purposes, I can relax. I relax because I am not called to be in control but simply to be responsible with my time. Please join me as I explore the ancient teaching of Ecclesiastes 3
