

YEAR 10 SCIENCE

Year 10 science have recently started learning about Chemical Reactions.

Yesterday, they were exploring the reactivity of different group two metals and seeing how their theoretical expectations line up with reality.

The students really enjoyed the lesson and seeing the results!

