

CYBER SAFETY SEMINARS

This week, students in Year 7 and 8 attended information sessions on Cyber Safety.

Senior Constable Robert McFarlane attended the College to discuss the issues around safety online. Technology plays an important role in our everyday lives, and a significant part of this is how we build and maintain our relationships.

The workshop delivered important safety points for students to understand when engaging in online activity.

It was a very helpful session for our students.