Inspiring true story of one Police Officer and his best friend...

'Man's Best Friend' - Luke Warburton with Simon Bouda

"At 10.30 p.m. on 12 January 2016 Acting Sergeant Luke Warburton thought he was taking his last breath. A decorated New South Wales Police Officer, the father of three was looking death in the face after a bullet pierced his femoral vein. If it wasn't for the fact that it happened in the Emergency Ward of Sydney's Nepean Hospital, Warburton would probably have been dead already. An hour earlier, he'd walked to his police van with his ever-faithful German shepherd, Chuck, trotting alongside. Later, Luke would be awarded the Commissioner's Valour Award for conspicuous merit and exceptional bravery in the line of duty. He would maintain he was just a copper doing his job. So, too, was Chuck, who was nationally recognised for bringing down Australia's most wanted man, Malcolm Naden, after a manhunt lasting more than seven years. MAN'S BEST FRIEND is Luke and Chuck's story. It's the story of a boy who dreamed of one day being a policeman, of his love for dogs and his time at the NSW Police Dog Unit. It's also the story of an ordinary man and his ordinary dog doing extraordinary things in the line of duty."

'Man's Best Friend' tells the true story of Sergeant Luke Warburton a courageous and inspiring Police Officer, and his best friend Chuck the Police dog. Sergeant Warburton takes us on an incredible journey, starting from his early days in the force, to becoming a Police dog handler, to coming close to death in a shooting at Nepean Hospital in 2016. Inspirational and deeply moving, this wonderful book gives readers a real insight into the daily activities of the NSW Police Dog Unit, its amazing handlers, its special four-legged heroes, and the incredible bond that can be formed between man and dog. Filled with humour, danger and tragedy but also triumphs, this is a fantastic read for animal lovers everywhere.
