

HOCKEY STATE REPRESENTATIVE

After a rigorous selection process, Saxon C has been selected as a member of the New South Wales 13 and under Ice Hockey Team to compete in the 2022 Phil Ginsberg National Championship.

The Phil Ginsberg National Championship is conducted annually by Ice Hockey Australia and provides an opportunity for players from all over Australia to compete in their chosen sport at a representative level. The players in the Team are accomplished sportspeople who will be representing the State of NSW.

He will be representing NSW in Adelaide from the 11-14 of August. Saxon was also selected for the reserve bench for the Under 15 State team.

Congratulations Saxon on this outstanding achievement.