

GOLDEN TICKET

Our Junior School Golden Ticket competition has been taking place. There are several golden tickets in the library books for students to find.

There were some very excited recipients this week! Here is what they had to say.

"I was so excited because I was the first one to find it!" said Liam from 1D, the winner of one of the Golden Tickets in the Junior School Library. "I have already chosen what book I will get with the voucher – The Worst Week Ever."

"My mum and dad and grandma are really happy that I won a ticket. I love Golden Tickets!" exclaimed Valentina, also from 1D.

Both the students are looking forward to reading their new books at night before bedtime.

Mrs Issa and Mr Smith in the Library have said there are more books with the Golden Tickets in the Library. Borrow lots of books to see what the next winner is.

Worst Week Ever books are by Eva Amores and Matt Cosgrove
