

YEAR 9 EXTREME HISTORY

In Year 9 Extreme History, students have been learning about Viking longboats and how advanced they were for their time, meticulously designed in order to travel quickly and traverse oceans and rivers.

Students tried their hand at making their own Viking longship models using craft materials, and were challenged to design a model that was aesthetically pleasing and could float!

See the photographs above for some of the results.

Mr Samuel Mills

Senior School Teacher - History & Christian Studies
