Diamonds
Shiny, majestic
Glowing, glittering, falling
It is a masterpiece
Precious

Personification poem

By Savannah F

As the wind rushed through the trees, past the river and into the sea.

Kites flying in every direction just as the autumn leaves.

The sun gives a wink to the flowers below as they slowly danced in the wind while saying "hello".

The air turns still as the sun settles down, the moon starts to rise as the flowers say "good night".

Frustration is...
As mean as the devil
Like a pit of lava
As heavy as an elephant
As noisy as a trumpet.

Callum M

Excitement is...
The feeling like you're a balloon about to pop
Or the feeling that you don't have to mop
As warm as the stars in the bright night sky
I feel so happy, I feel I could fly.

Cierra G

H2O Skirmish (Ava - 4K)

Splash, splash, bop
You're out, awww
Pop, got ya

Drip, drip, drop
Swoosh, 4 down, 5 to go
Make that 3 to go yippie

Ouch! Smack!
Said all the people that went smack on the floor,
The sponges went whizz through the air.

Nervousness by Ayla K 4M

Nervousness is...

As anxious and unsure as the crashing sea,
As scary and depressing as the feeling can be,
As dark and sad as the moonlight's glow
And as fearful and scary as what hides below.

The Waterway (Isaac - 4K)

I am the reeds
Soaked and Dampened
Peeping out of the water

I am the stream
Quiet and gentle
Soft and Calm

I am the rocks
Hard and knobbly

I am the waterfall
Flowing peacefully
Splashing and raging

I am the river
My tide flows quickly
Rushing past

Happiness Is...
By Buddy G 4M

As bright as when daylight comes
As special as cuddling a dog as tall as you
As cuddly as a cat smaller than you
As relaxing as a swim in the pool
As fun as having a picnic in the sun
As exciting as jumping on a trampoline
As comfortable as getting into bed and going to sleep
Now the day is over and I can't wait to do it again!
