NSW CIS PRIMARY TENNIS TRIALS

On Monday 27 February, Alexander L competed at the NSW CIS Primary Tennis Trials at The Kings School.

There were over 30 players from schools in the NSW Combined Independent schools system who competed for selection into the NSW CIS team.

The tournament started with 5 pools of players and Alexander had 7 players in his pool. He played 6 round matches and finished in the top 2 positions in his pool, earning a place in the Round Two matches. The 10 students in Round Two competed for the final 5 positions in the State team.

Congratulations to Alexander in qualifying for the NSW CIS Primary Tennis team.

He will travel to Albury in May to play in the NSWPSSA Tennis Championships.

Well done Alexander, we are very proud of you.
