STUDENT SPORT SPOTLIGHT

Recently the ISKA Karate World Cup which is on every 4 years was held in Sydney and some of our talented Students competed. There were 1350 competitors across 22 different countries.

Maddyson in Year 1 was awarded 1st Place as the World Cup Winner in both Sumo 6-7 female and Koshiki 7 year old female competitions.

She also placed in the following events:

Sword combat 6-7 female - 5th place

Points sparing 6-7 female - 4th place

Extreme music weapons 7 and under mixed - 2nd place

Self defence 7 and under mixed - 2nd place

Clash sparring 6-7 female - 2nd place

Antonio B in Year 3 won World Champion in clash sparring, 1st in point sparring, 1st in team sparring, 2nd in sumo wrestling 2nd in nun chucks, 3rd in swords.

Vansh in Year 7 finished the championship with 4 World Cup wins and a second place.

Well done Maddyson, Antonio and Vansh, we are very proud of your achievements.

Has your child recently competed in a representative level?
