

KINDY FARM EXCURSION

This week Kindergarten students visited the Camden Environmental Educational Centre.

All students had fun herding some sheep, learning about chickens, how to crack eggs and making scrambled eggs. They also learned about lemons and how to make their own lemonade. Finally, they went on a tractor ride and ended off the day with a milkshake!

As some of the students said, "It was the best day ever!"
