

KINDY FIRST DAY

This week our Kindy students officially started their journey. For some it was their very first day, while others returned after a great year in Prep.

They all stepped into the classroom ready for a big year of learning and discovery.