INTERMEDIATE CONCERT & STAGE BAND SHINED AT THE CAMDEN SHOW

Last Friday, the Intermediate Concert and Stage Bands took centre stage at the Camden Show to deliver an enthusiastic performance that showcased their talent and hard work. The event promised to be a thrilling experience for both the performers and the audience, with the bands playing a mix of classic tunes and modern hits that had everyone tapping their feet and clapping along.

The Intermediate Concert Band, consisting of students from Years 5-9, opened with a series of well-rehearsed pieces, highlighting their technical skill and musicality. With their rhythms and harmonious melodies, the group earned enthusiastic applause.

Following them, the Stage Band brought an exciting energy to the stage. Known for their vibrant jazz and contemporary music, the Stage Band wowed the crowd with their improvisational solos and dynamic performances.

Overall, the performance at the Camden Show was a fantastic display of musical growth and teamwork for the students and an entertaining hour for the audience.
