

YEAR 11 FIELDWORK

Year 11 Geography students conducted a fieldwork investigation into the Characteristics of Earth's natural systems and factors affecting their functioning.

Through this experience, students gained a broader perspective on the interconnected nature of Earth's systems and the potential impacts of human settlement.

Ms Stephanie Sedlar
Senior School Teacher - HSIE