NEW WEBSITE

We are thrilled to announce our new website will be launching during the Winter Holidays.

We have been working hard behind the scenes to create a fresh design with updated features and a clearer window into life at the College.

Thank you to all the students, staff, parents and alumni who've already shared their reflections — your words will be part of what makes the new site so special.

There's still a chance to be involved. If you'd like to contribute a short comment or testimonial, the form is still open for a little longer.

We can't wait to share the new website with you. Stay tuned!
