

JUNIOR SCHOOL ILLUSTRATORS COMPETITION

What is it? An illustrating competition open to all students, Prep to 6.

When is it? Submissions must be entered by Friday 15 August. These are to be given to the class teacher.

Please note: For this year, all entries are to be completed at home.

Inspiration: Each class will be given a story, an excerpt from a story, or a poem, written by our students, to illustrate. They will all follow the theme of "Clouds."

Submissions:

- May involve the use of pencils, paints, crayons, pastels and/or mixed media
- May use digital art components
- Must be on unlined A4 paper
- Must not involve AI
- Should not be laminated, mounted or framed
- Must be the student's own work
- Must be original, and not previously awarded any prizes in other competitions

Entries must be labelled on the back of the illustration with the:

- student's first and last names, class and house

Entries will be chosen from every grade to be published in the Thomas Hassall online magazine. Winning entries from each grade will also receive a mystery art related prize.
