

YEAR 3 EXPLORE FORCES AT LIZARD LOG

Our Year 3 students recently had an exciting day at Lizard Log exploring the world of forces in action. Through hands-on experiments and interactive activities, they discovered how pushes, pulls, and friction affect movement.

The natural setting provided plenty of opportunities for students to test their ideas, work collaboratively, and connect classroom learning to real-life experiences. It was a fun and engaging day of science in the outdoors!

Mrs Lisa Sampson
Junior School Teacher - Team Leader Year 3