UNITE WEEK

This week is our annual College Unite Week. It is a wonderful celebration of our cultural diversity.

On Friday 26 June, students in both Junior School and Senior School are invited to wear an outfit that represents their cultural background. This could range from full traditional dress, an outfit featuring colours from their national flag or a sporting jersey from their national team. If students do not have any cultural items to wear, they are encouraged to wear the colour orange, as this is the national colour of Harmony Day in Australia.

Please note: This day is NOT a mufti or free dress day. If students choose not to participate or wear any of the above-mentioned options, they are to arrive in their full winter College uniform.
