CELEBRATING R U OK? DAY

On Thursday 11 September, our College community came together during recess and lunch to mark R U OK? Day, a meaningful occasion dedicated to highlighting the power of checking in with one another.

We are incredibly proud of our student leaders, who stepped up to help plan and execute many key aspects of the day. Thanks to their initiative and leadership, students had the chance to connect through a variety of engaging activities, including contributing to our Gratitude Wall, creating uplifting messages with positive graffiti along the walkways and enjoying a sausage sizzle alongside delicious treats.

A heartfelt thank you goes out to our wonderful Parent Community Network. Your generosity in donating, baking, and supplying cupcakes and slices contributed greatly to the success of the day and helped raise support for this important cause.

As we approach the end of the term, let's keep the momentum going by continuing to ask, "R U OK?" and having genuine conversations with those around us. Reaching out and checking in with a mate can make all the difference.

To learn more about the movement, resources and how to start a conversation, visit the official R U OK? Website.
