STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Arya K, Year 12 Crowned First-Ever Miss Teen Culture Australia

Congratulations to Arya in Year 12, who has been crowned the inaugural Miss Teen Culture Australia, receiving the national title along with the Best Advocacy Award at the competition held in Brisbane on Thursday 5 and Friday 6 November.

As the first-ever recipient of the title, Arya will take on the role of Australia's national teen cultural ambassador, celebrating her heritage, embracing her identity and using her voice to inspire young people and make a difference.

The title also provides Arya with the opportunity to represent Australia on the international stage in 2027, as she begins her journey towards Teen Culture International.

We congratulate Arya on this outstanding achievement and look forward to following her journey as she represents Australia internationally.
